

Restrict bucket attributes

Through this tab, you can restrict bucket level attributes for a specific role and specify whether you want to allow this role users to view or edit bucket attributes. Go to Restrict bucket attributes tab, the following page appears:

<	Model Level Attributes	Request Attributes	Request Reasons	Bucket Attributes	Restrict Bucket Attributes	Linked Catalogs	Color Palette	Col	>
<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	0 of 2 Selected			<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Role Id	Role Name	Account Type Id	Account Type	Actions
<input type="checkbox"/> 2	Sales Person	2	Seller	<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/> 31	Read Only Buyer	3	Buyer	<input type="checkbox"/>

Roles are listed, along with the account type Id, and account type. To view the restricted bucket attributes, select View bucket attributes from the Actions menu next to it, the following window appears:

The screenshot shows a window titled "Bucket Attributes" with a close button (X) in the top right corner. Below the title bar is a toolbar with a selection icon, a refresh icon, and a status bar indicating "0 of 2 Selected". The main content area contains a table with the following columns: "Id", "System Name", "Attribute Name", "Not Editable", and "Not Viewable". There are two rows of data. The first row has Id 527, System Name AR_End_Date, Attribute Name AR End Date, Not Editable True (green dot), and Not Viewable False (red dot). The second row has Id 267, System Name Additional_Comments_rqst, Attribute Name Comments, Not Editable True (green dot), and Not Viewable True (green dot).

Id	System Name	Attribute Name	Not Editable	Not Viewable
527	AR_End_Date	AR End Date	True	False
267	Additional_Comments_rqst	Comments	True	True

Attributes are listed along with their Id, system name, and whether the attribute is editable or viewable.

The following sections discuss how to manage restricting bucket attributes.
