Settings

Through this tab you can specify the time after which you are automatically logged out of the system if you were not doing any activity, and reset your filters and column.

Go to Settings tab, the following page appears:

The page displays the default settings of the system and you can update them according to your preference.

App auto lock

This option specifies the time, in minutes, after which you are automatically logged out of T1 in case you were not doing any activity. This option is added for your security in case you left your computer unattended without logging out. The value ranges from 1 to 60 minutes.

To change the time, drag the slider, you will notice the number next to it changes accordingly as in the below example:

You can also enter the value you want in the field.

Note:

- You cannot turn this option off and the slider button is deactivated. Only a Trasix user has the privilege to turn this option off.

Reset Layout

This option resets the system pages to display only the default columns and in the default order. In case you have chosen to show or hide specific columns using the Column chooser or changed the columns sequence, this button resets your changes back to the default. For more information on using the Column chooser, refer to "Column chooser and pre-defined columns".

Reset my predefined filters

This option deletes all the filters you have created in different system pages. For more information on using filters, refer to "Filter records".
